ActiMaris (Wound Irrigation Solution)

Scope of Practice	EMR
Classification	• Topical Antiseptic
Usual Presentation	• 300mL bottle containing: water, sea salt (1.2%), sodium hypochlorite NaOCl (0.04%) and hypochlorous acid H0Cl (0.004%).
Mechanism of Action	• Has an eliminating effect on wound pathogens.
Indications	• Irrigation of traumatic and chronic wounds.
Contraindications	• Known allergy to Actimaris ingredients.
Precautions	• None Noted
Side Effects	• Slight, temporary burning sensation around wound area.
Adult Dose & Administration	• Use ample amount to provide sufficient wound irrigation.
Pediatric Dose & Administration	• Use ample amount to provide sufficient wound irrigation.
Use in Pregnancy and Lactation	• Safety has not been demonstrated. • Sterile water or saline is preferred if available.
Additional Information	• Cross contamination between patients may occur with incorrect handling of ActiMaris bottle.